

Mrs. Frankie Scott is a native of North Carolinian with a strong passion for family and helping others. Mrs. Scott has demonstrated this passion by serving as an educator for 15 years. Scott has served as a project manager for the Department of Social Services for the State of North Carolina and also for The Georgia Division of Family and Children Services. Scott holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management from The University of Phoenix and a MBA in Human Resource Management from Columbia Southern University. Mrs. Scott is a true advocate of the people as she services in multiple roles outside of her traditional career position. Collectively, she donates valuable time by providing philanthropic efforts as the founder of Prosperity Place of Georgia, Director of Human Resources for the National Engineering League, Board member of the National Engineering League Foundation, and Advancement Committee member with the Emily K Center. She enjoys collaborating with her husband, traveling, interior design, baking, and crafting.
